

Mount Joy Area Chamber of Commerce Scholarship 2026

The purpose of the $1,500 Mount Joy Area Chamber of Commerce (MJCOC) Scholarship is to encourage and support the development of future workforce leaders in our community.

Scholarship Information and Criteria

The scholarship is open to any Mount Joy area resident or a family member of a current MJCOC member who is a high school senior entering or a student currently attending an accredited college, post-secondary school, or trade school with a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale.

The application, essay, and letters of recommendation must be submitted by Friday, April 10, 2026, to be considered. A selection committee of Chamber members will review applications.

Other Required Information

- An essay (minimum of 200 words) describing the life experiences that have helped shape your goals and career path. The essay will be a significant factor in the selection process.
- Two letters of recommendation attesting to your character and academic performance—one from an academic reference and one from an employer.
- High school or college transcript
- SAT/ACT scores (for high school students, if required by the school you will be attending)
